Bangladesh Economy

The current landscape of Bangladesh presents a complex picture of economic challenges amid political transition. The country stands at a critical juncture following significant political upheaval in 2024, with attempting to navigate economic pressures, energy challenges, and shifting geopolitical alignments.

The Bangladesh non-life insurance industry in 2024 is experiencing a mixed economic performance but profit margins declining for many companies due to increased claims and ongoing economic challenges. The industry is also dealing with significant issues in claims settlement. The non-life segment saw growth in 2024. Despite the premium growth the profits of most non-life insurers declined due to a drop in marine and fire insurance business. The sector faced a major challenge with claims settlement in 2024. Performance is heavily impacted by broader economic conditions, including a slowdown in GDP growth, a challenging business environment, and difficulties in the banking sector, which affect the non-life insurance market. The market is projected to grow, driven by increasing awareness of risks and demand for coverage, but faces significant hurdles related to investor confidence and regulatory issues. The Insurance Development and Regulatory Authority (IDRA) has promised to take action against companies with poor claim settlement rates.

Industry Outlook and Possible Future Development

At the time when economic indicators are doing better and economy in growing steadily, Bangladesh's insurance penetration meaning premiums as a share of GDP is the lowest among the emerging Asia-Pacific nations.

Addressing the problems and the prospects of the insurance business in Bangladesh, past studies pinpointed several problems such as human resource, operational, marketing and ethical problem, lack of awareness, lake of government supervision and lack of promotional negative image.

The insurance industry of Bangladesh is highly competitive. Key factors affecting the performance of the industry during the period included fierce competition in the non-life segment, the rising market shares of private insurance companies and the increasing level of risk being retained by insurers. By streamlining the regulatory infrastructure in terms of data warehousing, governance, systems, resources and processes in adjustment with international insurance standards such as the International Association of Insurance Supervisors (IAIS); Bangladesh can exhibit a reliable and well-balanced insurance platform. In short, rehabilitation of insurance regulations promulgated by IDRA could surely result in multifold positive impacts on the economy of Bangladesh.

Disclosures Pertaining To Solvency Margin

The solvency ratio of an insurance company is the size of its capital compared to the risk the company has taken as a part of its business. Simply put, the solvency ratio is a measurement of how much the insurance company has in assets versus how much it owes. It is one of the basic measurements to assets how financially sound the South Asia Insurance Company is and its overall ability to pay claims. It is measured as:

Solvency Ratio = Available Solvency Margin (ASM) - Required solvency Margin (RSM)

Where ASM is the value of the company's assets over liabilities. RSM is based on ne premiums and defined as per the guidelines. Insurance companies are often required by regulators to maintain a certain level of solvency in order to continue operating. A strong solvency ratio means that the company is financially stable. On the other hand, if the solvency ratio is weak, it may indicate that the insurer is at risk of becoming insolvent. We are vibrant with the solvency margin.

	▶ Finally assessed the appropriateness and presentation of disclosures against IAS 12 Income Taxes.
	Prepared and sent a formal confirmation request on the client's letterhead to SBC, requesting them to confirm the payable balance as at 31 December 2024.
Non-Confirmation of Payable Balance to Shadharan Bima Corporation (SBC)	Obtained acknowledgement of receipt from SBC but did not receive a completed confirmation.
As at 31 December 2024, the Company's financial statements include a payable balance of BDT 87,229,441 to Shadharan Bima Corporation (SBC), a state-owned insurer. We identified this balance as a key audit matter due to its materiality and the absence of a direct confirmation from SBC, which limited our ability to obtain third-party audit evidence. The inability to venfy this balance through external confirmation increased the risk of potential misstatement or disagreement in the outstanding liability.	▶ Inspected supporting documents such as insurance premium invoices, claim settlements, debit/credit notes, and internal reconciliation statements.

Other Information

Management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all the information in the Annual Report other than the financial statements and our auditors report thereon. The Annual Report is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report. Our opinion on the consolidated and separate financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion therean,

In connection with our audit of the consolidated and separate financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated and separate financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the Annual Report, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to the board of directors of the company.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements and Internal Controls

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with IFRSs, the Companies Act 1994, the Insurance Act 2010, the Insurance Rules 1958 and other applicable laws and regulations and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated and Separate Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's and the Company's internal control
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concem. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

• Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit..

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.
